You may update your personal profile data in your member account - My Account page.

The new activation link will be sent to your new registered email address. Click that link to activate your new email registration.

Note: Once you change to the new email address, the previous used email address will be disabled permanently.

