Why does the size of the image not match the original size in Face Filter 3?

In order to fit window display, if the size of your image is bigger, it will show smaller in the Import page. If the size of your image is smaller, the image will be enlarged and may become blurred. This feature doesn't affect the real size and quality of the image you imported.