We provide different Windows version and Mac version installers and serial numbers, so one license can't be installed on two different OS platforms.

However, we do understand the needs and conveniences to have dual OS programs to use on both Windows and Mac platforms, thus we have a very special program only for dual OS requests. Please contact Support for the details.