The application crashed while I was rigging.

AccuRIG can crash from computational errors resulting from faulty joint positioning, as skeleton joints are expected to stay within the mesh volume. Please contact technical support if the problem persists.

Reallusion FAQ
https://kb.reallusion.com/Product/53079/The-application-crashed-while-I-was-rigging